Synod of Presbyterian Church Takes Up College Matters.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Fulton, Mo., Oct. II.—The Synod of the Presbyterian Church met this morning at 9 o'clock. The most of the day was taken up in hearing the reports of various com-up in hearing the reports of various committees.

The report of the Synodical College Committee was read, and, after a debate on the part of Doctors Boude, Killough and Farris, the report was adopted. The report recommends that the synod heartily indoese the efforts of the board to raise $25,000 for new buildings, and to otherwise improve the college, and that the number of the Board of Trustees be increased from nine to fifteen.

the college, and that the number of the Board of Trustees be increased from nine to fifteen.

The memorial to the Northern Synod, setting forth the terms of co-operating on the behalf of Westminster College, presented by Doctor Cannon, was adopted. The standing committee on the Affairs of Westminster College presented a report, which was unanimously adopted. Sunday, February 2, 1862, was fixed as the day for taking a special collection for Westminster in all the churches of the synod.

The plan adopted at Boonville to secure $150,000 for additional endowment and equipment for the college was again indorsed, and all were earnestly urged to co-operate in securing the entire amount before the semicentennial of the college in 1862.

The following were elected members of the Board of Trustees; E. W. Grant of Fulton, nominated by the Alumni Association; Louise Husgins of St. Joseph, H. H. Boce of Kansas City, the Reverend Doctor A. A. Wallace of Mexico, and William E. Guy of St. Louis.

Invitations were received asking the synod to hold its next meeting at Farmington and at Memphis by one majority.

The Reverend Poctor Marquess spoke in behalf of Louisville Seminary, explaining the consolidation of the Northern and Southern seminaries of Kentucky.

The afternoon seession was devoted to a ern seminaries of Kentucky.

The afternoon session was devoted to a discussion of Sunday-school work. The synod adjourned to meet at the call of the moderator in order to complete the proposed pian of co-operation on behalf of Westminster College.
